2012 Greetings to all. Congratulations to all our winners at the Christmas Party. Big thank you to everyone who contributed door prizes and food for the pantry. Since we did not have a December Chapter Gathering because our Christmas Party was on January 7, this newsletter is short. We will continue on with more information after our January Chapter Gathering. Have a great month and think Spring.

Rider Education from Jim (Chapter CC Newsletter)

INSURANCE

Now would be the ideal time to review our policies. Most of us pay vehicle insurance premiums twice a year so the chances are good that we will receive a premium due notice this winter. Get out those policies and read through them. Do you understand things like Uninsured Motor Vehicle, Underinsured Motor Vehicle, Uninsured Motor vehicle stacking, Bodily Injury and Property Damage Liability? Do you have coverage for your co-rider? If you take a friend for a short ride, are they covered? Most importantly, do you have enough monetary coverage or do you just have minimum liability as prescribed by law? Call your insurance agent and ask the questions. Review your financial situation and determine if you are adequately covered for losses. Cover Your Butt! You certainly don't want any major expenses or even a lawsuit because you are not prepared. We want you to be a happy biker and remember SAFETY IS FOR LIFE!

Thank you Jim, good information.

CHAPTER 5 NEWSLETTER EDITOR

Diane Parks

I trust everyone got home ok from our wonderful Christmas Party in Sanborn Saturday night. What a blast. Again, we all came together to set up and prepare for the people who makes the party complete by attending and enjoying the fruits of our labor. Everyone brought snacks and door prizes and something for the O'Brien County Pantry. We had an awesome attendance and a super meal.

We started out with our leader, Galen, welcoming everyone and introducing the dignitaries. Everyone enjoyed the meal and fellowship.

Special thanks to Doug & Dorothy and Galen & Marlene for getting such cool 50's decorations and special thanks to Deb Jasper for making five glorious desserts to choose from that definitely hit the spot by finishing out the meal. And let's not forget Doug and Ma Lyman for picking out our location for the party. Perfect size, great location.

Then after we got over the STUPIDS on how to play BUNCO (obviously not many of us had played it before) we had a really good time. I pretty much think not many of us knew how to keep score either. BUT IT WAS FUN. We could all plead ignorance if questioned.

The raffle drawing and 50/50 was a lot of fun. More next month.
